These systems should evolve in line with the evolution of the responsibilities of the senior leaders.</li> <li>• Strategic diary management, always considering the need to prevent avoidable pressure points when agreeing appointments.</li> <li>• General secretarial assistance including correspondence, minute taking, proof reading and research.</li> <li>• Administrative support for the Development Office, as directed by members of the leadership group.</li> </ul>

- Make arrangements for and (when required) attend internal and external meetings to (for example) take minutes. This includes for any bodies outside of the school that the Executive and/or other senior leaders chair. On occasion this may require flexibility in working hours and local travel.
- To be responsible for managing the system of approval for teaching staff absence, communicating with the HR & Operations Manager in order to ensure it is administered in accordance with internal procedures.
- This list of support for the leadership group is not intended to be exhaustive. They may, on occasion, ask for support with personal as well as professional administration.

General Administration Support

- To undertake administrative tasks in support of all members of the team and all areas of school administration as directed.
- To co-ordinate staff contributions to the weekly staff briefing and news items for the School website each week.
- To work closely with the Development Office and Senior and Middle Leaders to ensure appropriate news items and digital media are available for sharing (and are published) on the School's website and social media platforms
- To maintain the School website, ensuring – for example - that news items and the School calendar are regularly updated.
- To attend the weekly Staff Briefing, produce notes and circulate as soon as possible thereafter, ideally on the same day.
- Respond to enquiries (both internal and external) and, where necessary, direct on to the most appropriate person.
- Arrangements for meetings, interviews, conferences and events (both internal and external), including refreshments /hospitality and room bookings and liaison with external agencies as required.

Team Responsibilities:

The School's motto is 'Not for oneself but for all'. All members of staff should embody this in their day-to-day support of education at Wilson's School and through contributions to the wider life and ethos of the school. The behaviours below refer to your role in the Administration Team and as a member of the wider Operations Team:

- Adopt and project a positive, professional, 'can-do' attitude with all stakeholders. Appreciate and support the role of other professionals, establishing constructive working relationships
  - Enable and support effective communication and information flow across the team
  - Be technologically adept and both interested in and enthusiastic about digital solutions.
  - Work with efficiency, liaising with others as necessary about your progress, prioritising tasks to meet agreed deadlines
  - Seek to solve problems as they arise.
  - Adopt a collaborative and flexible approach, accepting that systems, structures and routines must flex to support educational provision
- Expect to assist other members of staff with tasks and duties in order to promote effective teamwork.
